Administration, Faculty, & Staff

To the Class of 2006:

Congratulations to the Class of 2006! You have worked extraordinarily hard over the course of your high school years. It is amazing how quickly these four years have passed by. Your accomplishments both in the classroom and in extracurricular activities have been outstanding. I am certain you will continue to excel in all of your future endeavors. Best wishes for a terrific future.

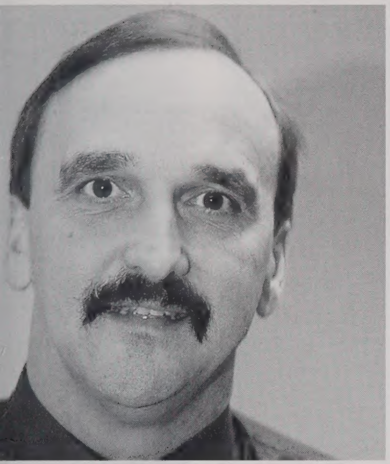
Dr. Francis J. Connor
Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 2006:

Your class represents the very last class that I will ever have the opportunity to address, either at a commencement or in a yearbook. So while this message is bittersweet for me, please know I wish each of you the very best as you begin to make your way in a most difficult world. And as you take leave of D-R, know that you have been well prepared to deal with whatever comes your way.

I can only leave you with my most sincere wishes for good health, happiness, and success in whatever you do.

Mr. Trent R. Danella
Principal



To the Class of 2006:

Best wishes and congratulations to the Class of 2006. I have enjoyed working with you in the classroom as well as administratively and have gotten to know many of you very well. It has been very rewarding watching all of you mature. I wish all of you continued success and much happiness in whatever endeavors you choose to accomplish. I am sure the preparation you have received at D-R over the past four years will help you to achieve all of your goals. If there is any way I can be of help to you in the future, please feel free to contact me. Again, my best wishes for continued success.

Mr. Michael Cichon
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 2006:

Well, four good years have passed, and you've all accomplished a great deal academically, socially, and personally! During this time, we've learned a lot from each other, and I, as well as the rest of us here at D-R, will cherish the memories that we have forged.

As you venture into the real world, remember what you have been taught, always do the right thing, and don't forget about us. Each one of you has the necessary intellectual foundation and personal qualities to be a contributing member of society -- live up to expectations, and become what you want and deserve to be. Best wishes and congratulations.

Mr. Jose Libano
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 2006:

Over the past four years, you have mastered the art of meeting those personal, social and academic challenges that were put before you. For having done so, you are ready to move forward, joining the ranks of your fellow alumni who have graduated from this place. Follow in their footsteps and continue to put forth your best effort in all that you undertake. Very best wishes to you, the Class of 2006.

Mr. F. Leon Sibielski
Director of Guidance

To the Class of 2006:

Congratulations to the Class of 2006. I started my D-R career the same time as you , four years ago. You are moving on to new challenges and the next phase of your life's journey and I wish you the best. I know that you have been well prepared by your time here at D-R. Whether your decision involves college, technical school, or a career in the military, the lessons learned here will serve you well in the future. Enjoy the independence of adulthood with the positive attitude and work ethic you have demonstrated here over the past four years.

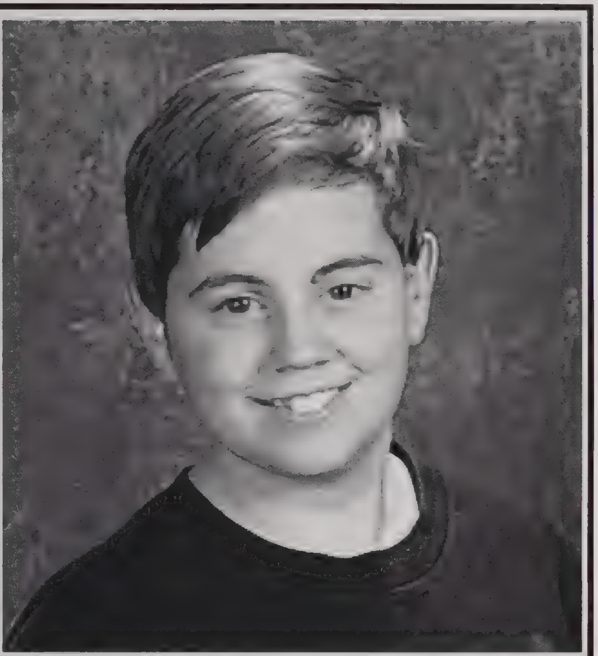
In Loving Memory

Tyler was a boy who could always make you feel good about yourself and he always put a smile on everybody's face. Just knowing what he went through and how happy he was regardless of the pain and treatments made you realize that your small everyday problems aren't worth fussing about. Whether he was handing out candy or giving someone one of his atomic high-fives Tyler was always in high spirits. Tyler Almquist is a boy who will live on in our hearts and in our memories always.

Rest in Peace Little Buddy, We Miss You.

- Jay Deluca, Chris Croke, Dave George,
Josh Owen & Robby Oliveira



Tyler Almquist
1989 - 2005

"Tyler was a role model for everyone who knew him. It was amazing how someone who was in school so little could have touched that many people in such a way. It was an inspiration to see someone my age that strong."

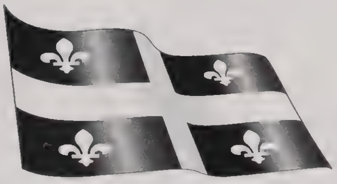
Project HOPE tries to raise environmental and humanity issues among high school students and to promote a structure through which they can effect positive change. It is a state-wide organization run by and for the high school students for the preservation of our planet. This year we have invested in improving the student memorial outside the Dighton entrance as well as participated in a river study.

French Club



French Club meetings are informal get-togethers where students may be playing word games like Scrabble or French Pictionary or may be learning more about a French holiday or French customs. This year, some members attended French movies at the Cable Car Theater and at the Rhode Island School of Design auditorium in Providence. All members participated in a festive celebration of French holiday foods that they had prepared along with a sing-along of French Christmas carols at Mme Mahoney's. Many members also attended a museum exhibit of Degas' works at the Rhode Island School of Design.

his year the Latin Club organized many events. To kick off the 2005-2006 Latin Club year, we held an Induction Cerny at Jess' house. During the Christmas season, the Latin Club held a Saturnalia, or roman party, that is held during the er season. Also, some of the members went to sing Christmas Carols in latin at Brown University. On the Ides of March, atin Club reenacted Julius Caesar's death in the classrooms, both in latin with english subtitles. The Latin Classes also a field trip to see a play called "The Prisoners" at Mass College of Art. The Latin Club has also gotten a taste of greek and n food by taking trips to the Olive Garden. For their final event, the Latin Club went to see "The Da Vinci Code" and ussed it's latin references. This club has done many amazing things this year, which have taught the students about many cts of roman and greek life.

The National Honor Society continued its strong role at Dighton-Rehoboth this past year. In addition to continued fundraising efforts for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, the chapter sponsored the peer tutoring program, which involved more than 50 members of NHS, and also served as corridor guides during parent-teacher nights. The group sponsored the annual Remembrance Walk in the fall, and saw its Honor Bowl team enjoy another successful season in the South Coast Conference. In all, the year was highly successful for the chapter charged with carryin on the strong tradition of scholarship, service, leadership and character.

Season Summary

The 2005 Falcon Football team ended the season with a 6-4 record. Off to a flying 6-0 start, the team was hit hard with injuries during the second half of the season. Although the defense played great all year, the offense struggled to score points late in the season. Highlights of the 2005 campaign include a thrilling come from behind 20-6 victory over Apponequet. The victory was sparked by a picture perfect 50 yard touchdown pass from Health Wasylow to Trevor McCabe. Perhaps the most satisfying win of the year was a hard fought 14-9 win over Old Rochester. Ouarterback Health Wasylow hit tight end Sean Cartin in the corner of the end zone for a score and scrambled 30 yards for another score to secure the victory. Tyler Lingard and Jay Mahoney led a stingy defense. Mike Edington and Jared Pinto were named to the All SCC Football Team.

Season Summary

While only winning 4 games, the Falcons showed marked improvements as the season wore on. This improvement was noted by many opposing coaches. Captains Nicole Braga, Caryn Duffy, and Justyne Roy credited themselves by keeping the team enthused, focused, and competitive. Their leadership along with seniors Tina Sylvia, Melissa Bairos, Mikala Soroka, and Drea Krasnianski set the positive tone for the season and set an example for the underclassmen.

Season Summary

Despite a 6-16 record, the Falcons played an entertaining, exciting, and competitive brand of basketball. Their 4-14 SCC record could have been much better had they found a way to turn numerous close losses into victories. However, the team perservered and finished the season with a three game winning streak, including a win over fourth place Fairhaven and in the championship in the Mansfield Tourney. The team was led by All-SCC performer Jared Pinto (13ppg/7rpg) and honorable mention selections Michael Mederios (9.8ppg) and Heath Wayslow (10.4ppg).

Season Summary

The Girls' Basketball team finished the 2005-2006 season with a 10-12 overall record. The Lady Falcons had the opportunity to qualify for the state tournament right up until their last game versus Somerset, but were defeated 51-42 ending their season. The Falcons started the season 4-2 and things looked bright, however injuries and the loss of key players turned out to be an issue throughout the season. However the girls played extremely tough throughout the season led by Nina Nwachukwu's 14 points and 11 rebounds per game and Mary Nwachukwu's 11 points and 15 robounds per game. Katie Rose was also a strong force with 7 points and 6 rebounds per game. The Falcons, with a 6-10 league record, finished 6th in th South Coast Conference.

Season Summary

The boys track team enjoyed another strong season in 2005-2006, placing in the top three of the SCC, taking second at the SCC Relays, and placing in the top ten at the Class C Championship. In addition to the efforts of captains Adam Gustafson, Jon Olivier, Josh Jardim, and Charles Teixeira, the team had a number of underclassmen contribute to the team's success, including juniors Jared Torres, Zach Stabbings, and Mitch Giroux and sophomores Ryan Bezner and Dylan Ferragi. Oliver, Stabbings, and Torres all advanced to the State Championship, and a talented group of freshman qnd sophomores ensure this team will continue to be at the top of the SCC for years to come.

Season Summary

Having started off the season slowly (4-6), the team of young Falcons progressed steadily through mid-season and finished 6-2 down the stretch to gain a berth in the MIAA playoffs. Winning the last four season contests enabled the girls to finish 10-8 for fourth place in the SCC. Sophomores Leslie Briggs and Angela Shannon, along with junior Littany Blais finished their seasons with winning records. Jessica Adams, Lyndsey Barbehenn, Haley Manchester, and Monica Souza also won vital matches during the year. Senior co-captain Colie Gosselin, a four year player, also came up big for the Lady Falcons. This season however belonged to Sr. co captain Rachel Elman who after going 19-1 at #2 singles in her junior year, had a 16-2 effort at #1 this year. The Sun Chronicle, Taunton Gazette, and Fall River Herald All-star was a SCC All-star for the third straight year and completed her D-R career with over 60 singles victories.

Season Summary

Despite the fact that defending-champion Seekonk returned all but one player from last season, it was the Falcons who earned the SCC championship with an impressive 15-3 mark, 18-5 overall. The pitching staff carried the team all season holding opponents to a .221 batting average with a team earned run average of 2.78. Heath Wayslow (6-3, 2 saves, 2.10 era, 56 2/3 innings, 64 K, 14BB) and Nate Koneski (6-1, 1.31 era, 42 2/3 innings, 52K, 8BB) were named All SCC while Adam Gustafson (6-0, 1.72 era) received Honorable Mention. George Agostini (.469, 2HR, 24RBI) was named as the All SCC short-stop and Jared Pinto (.369, 1HR, 12RBI) was named as an All SCC outfielder. Colby Torres (.349) received Honorable Mention. Greg Steele (24RBI) and Cory Furtado (22RBI) also had productive seasons. Senior captains, CF Joe Travers (.300) and C Tyler Lingard (.345) anchored the Falcons' excellent defense up the middle.

The girls track team continued to be one of the top programs in the SCC. In addition to its 6-2 record and third place finish in the conference,the girls captured the 200th win in the school's history. Senior Danielle Bisson graduated as one of the top three scorers in school history. In addition, the distance team of Amanda Silvia, Katrina Hegeman, Helen Burns, Amanda Charbonneau, and Serena Moitozo competed as one of the best in the league, with multiple athletes taking top 20 places at the Class C Championship. Seniors Nicole Braga and Sam Briggs were consistently among the league's best hurdlers, while Caryn Duffy bolstered the jumpers. Senior thrower captain Caitlin Sherman, as well as captains Silvia , Hegeman, Charbonneau, and Lexi Milhailides, led the team with maturity and confidence, and will be missed greatly.

DIGHTON-REH

A Final Word From the Editors...

To the Class of 2006,

The past four years have been filled with both memorable and challenging moments. We have finally made it! Our experiences at D-R have made us who we are today. As you read this it is now August and we are preparing to move on to the next phase of our lives. The last thing we want is to read a string of cliches about how important this phase is and how to live our lives. D-R has more than prepared us to achieve our future goals, and in tribute to that, here are YOUR thoughts on what you will and won't miss as well as moments that you will remember forever.

Many of us will always have a special place in our hearts for the lunch ladies and the food they served us . . . chicken fajitas, TOTS, and mac-n-cheese. We will miss you all! We will also miss the thrill of successfully smuggling in our Dunkin Donuts breakfast (it was totally worth it). There are also those special people in this school whom no one will ever forget including Miss Saxon (everyone's favorite chemistry teacher), Mrs. Shillan (and her pink), Mr. Kulpa (our very own MTV star), Mr. Day (and his wonderful impressions), and of course Vitor's mom (the lovely Mrs. W). Above all, we will miss the safety of D-R, lunchtime, and our friends.

Many of us will never forget the feeling of defeat when we finally broke down and paid $100 to park because we could not imagine taking the bus. We do, however, take joy in the fact that we will never again witness the public displays of affection that crowded the freshmen corridor. We will definitely not miss having someone document our bathroom habits or writing a two-page sociology paper about the most random topic. We will not miss the high school drama, lack of privileges, and early mornings.

Unfortunately, there are many things we will never experience again. We will never walk through these doors again as students, as D-R is no longer our home. We will never again watch Adrian dance down the hallway to the sounds of Push It, Jay and Nolan ride into school on a two-person bike, or see Josh dressed as Jessica Simpson. We will never get a chance to see Ryan perform the "Dan Song" or see the look on Justyne's face when she was hit with a handful of baby powder (courtesy of Josh). These moments, along with thousands more, are what have made our time at D-R so memorable.

As we close, we would like to wish the retiring faculty health and happiness. A special thanks to Mr. Danella for keeping us in line these past four years, and to Mrs. Carter for getting us all into college! Enjoy your time out!

To Mrs. DuBois and Mrs. McCabe, thank you for donating all your time and energy to organizing such events as Senior Supper, Winter Ball, and Senior Prom – we had a blast. Thank you to the faculty members who took the time to get to know us, by names, as people.

To our yearbook advisors, Ms. Siachos and Mrs. Wosencroft, thank you for all your help and guidance through this long process. Ms. Siachos, thank you for jumping in and volunteering your time to help us. Mrs. Wosencroft, thank you for your help and enjoy the new baby. We will miss you both. Thank you to Jostens for helping with this publication and to Lifetouch for capturing the moments of our senior year.

To our classmates and friends, thank you for sharing this exciting journey with us. We will miss you. Never forget to " dream as if you'll live forever, live as if you'll die today." Enjoy your new found freedom.

Congratulations to the Class of 2006! Good luck!

Sincerely,
Megan Horton & Lauren Sanson, Co-Editors

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.

28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.

29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breeched, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.

31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.

2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.

4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.

6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.

9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.

12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.

14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.

15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.

20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.

22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.

23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.
